Town of West Hartford launches new Facebook page

WEST HARTFORD, CONN. (October 13, 2017) – The Town of West Hartford adds a new social media mechanism to its toolbox to reach more residents and businesses with information from the municipality.

The Town invites the public to ‘Like’ and ‘Follow’ its new Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/TownofWestHartfordCT/> for information about the community.

“The new Facebook page is one more way to share information from the municipality to its constituents,” said Matt Hart, Town Manager.

“We have to make it easy to find information and we have to deliver it in a manner in which people have come expect,” he continued.

The new Facebook page joins the Town’s electronic news options along with Twitter (TownofWestHrtfd), its web site (WestHartfordCT.gov), and list serve as ways in which we dissemination information,” said Renée McCue, public relations specialist.

“The type of articles you will find on the new Facebook page, include road closures for the Hartford Marathon, Essie Labrot being named Town Clerk of the Year, the new pilot food recycling program, winners of the Park Road Parade, and the selection of Sedgwick Middle School Principal Andrew Clapsaddle as guest speaker for the 2017 Veterans Day Ceremony,” she continued.

“Come check it out and visit is us often for fresh new information” she said.
